Notes on using the Finding Aid

First consult the fonds description (fonds being an archival term used to denote the whole of the records created by a specific individual or family and held within an archives). The fonds description includes a biographical sketch of the individual or family that created the records, a scope and content note which briefly describes the records within the fonds (this generally starts with “Fonds consists of...”), and several notes at the bottom, which provide information on access restrictions and copyright restrictions.

Some finding aids also provide series descriptions and subsequent pages which further describe the records within the fonds.

After reading these descriptions consult the file list and notify an archivist of the individual files you wish to view.

Biographical Sketch:

Rev. Dr. Arthur James Gowland (1913-1993) was a Presbyterian minister and Secretary of the Board of Evangelism and Social Action for The Presbyterian Church in Canada (PCC). He was born near Woodbridge, Ontario on 10 March 1913 to Thomas A. Gowland and Catherine C. Cameron. Gowland received his early education in Brampton, Ontario and later attended the University of Toronto where he obtained his B.A. in 1934 and his M.A. from Knox College in 1937. Gowland was ordained in the Prince Albert Presbytery on May 1, 1937. In 1971, Knox College conferred upon him the honorary Doctor of Divinity degree. Gowland took post-graduate studies at New College, Edinburgh, Scotland, where he concentrated on the theology of John Calvin, and also took classes at Claremont School of Theology, Claremont, California where he studied clinical pastoral counselling.

Gowland served as minister at St. Andrew's, Tisdale, Saskatchewan (1937-1938); Knox Church, St. Mary's, Ontario (1940-1943); Knox Church, Calgary, Alberta (1940-1953); Dufferin Street Church (1950-1958) and Queen Street East (Assistant Minister 1971-1972) in Toronto; and Knox Church, Oshawa, Ontario (1973-1978). While serving at these churches, Gowland was also active in church courts, various ministerial associations, and community projects.

In 1959, Gowland was appointed by The Presbyterian Church in Canada to serve as the first full-time Secretary of the Board of Evangelism and Social Action. Previous to this he had served as part-time secretary. As part of his duties, Gowland conducted training and workshops on evangelism and eldership, wrote manuals on evangelism and social action, and represented The Presbyterian Church in Canada on national and international councils. Gowland resigned from this position in 1971 in order to return to ministerial duties. After his retirement in 1979, Gowland lived in Mississauga, Ontario where he continued to be active in the work of the church.

Gowland married Isabel Drummond in 1942. They had three daughters, Joan, Ruth, and Mary. Gowland passed away on April 5, 1993.

Scope and Content:

Fonds consist of ministerial work, publications, reports, workshop materials, and personal papers which document Gowland's work as both a minister and secretary of the Board of Evangelism and Social Action. Board of Evangelism and Social Action materials contain reports, studies and workbooks issued by the Board relating to evangelism, social action, and the training of church elders. Gowland's lecture and conference notes for evangelism workshops are also included. Ministerial work includes sermon notes and outlines, resources for communicant's classes, sermon writing resources, and church histories and projects. The majority of sermons are from his time at Knox Church, Oshawa but there are also sermons that he delivered at his other charges. Personal papers consist of copies of Gowland's MA thesis and class notes from his time at Knox College and Claremont School of Theology as well as personal correspondence. Photographs consist of various General Assemblies, photographs of the resident students of Knox College in 1938 and 1939 and a photograph of the executive of the Board of Evangelism and Social Action in the 1960s.

All textual records are grouped together. The photographs and sound recordings have been removed from the fonds and placed in the Graphics and Audio-Visual Records sections of the Archives.

Sub-Series 1: Sermons Delivered

Scope and Content:

This sub-series consists of bulletins, sermon outlines, sermon notes, prayers, newspaper and magazine clippings, and outlines for children stories and funeral services.

Sermon topics include Jesus' death and resurrection, God's mission for the Church, the elderly, women in the Church, God's creation, the supremacy of Christ, sharing the gospel and evangelism, work and occupation, justice, family, and stewardship.

Arrangement: Since no apparent order or arrangement was discerned by the archivist, the sermons were rearranged and placed in chronological order. Some of the sermons may be missing as there are many months or years for which there is not a sermon for every consecutive week.

Note: In some cases, it is difficult to make out Gowland's writing but many of the final copies of his sermons are typewritten.
