Biographical Sketch of The Rev. Dr. Alexander MacMillan

The Rev. Dr. Alexander MacMillan was a minister of The Presbyterian Church in Canada and later The United Church of Canada, and was both nationally and internationally recognized and respected as a hymnologist and expert in the field of hymnody and church praise. He was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, on October 19, 1864, to Thomas MacMillan and his wife Margaret MacMillan (nee Henderson). He had an older step-brother, Thomas (the son of Thomas Sr. through a previous marriage), an older sister, Margaret, and a younger brother, John.

He studied at the University of Edinburgh from 1880 to 1884 before attending the United Presbyterian Theological College, "Divinity Hall", in Edinburgh. Through the Student Missionary Society he worked in Canada during the summer and autumn of 1886, visiting and preaching as student minister to the community in Fort Frances in northern Ontario. Shortly after his ordination in 1887, Alexander returned to Canada and accepted a call to the pastoral charge of Auburn and Smith's Hill in Ontario, where he served until September 1891.

In 1890, he married Wilhelmina ("Winnie") Ross, with whom he had four children: Ernest (born Aug. 18, 1893), Dorothy (born Aug. 22, 1898), Jean (born Feb. 15, 1901), and Winifred (born Jan. 13, 1904). Their son Ernest (Sir Ernest MacMillan) was quickly recognized as a gifted musician, and went on to become internationally recognized and acclaimed for his abilities as a composer and conductor.

Alexander's wife, Winnie, was the daughter of the Rev. Alexander Ross of Pictou, N.S., and Isabella Ross, who was in turn the daughter of the Rev. James Campbell of Kildonan in Sutherland, Scotland. James Campbell's wife Johan was also the daughter of a minister, being the child of the Rev. Alexander Urquhart of Rogart, and Williamina Urquhart (nee Polson).

After spending a year in Scotland, Alexander and Winnie returned to Canada in 1892, where Alexander accepted a call to Mimico Presbyterian Church, Ontario. He served in this charge until 1895, when he became minister at St. Enoch's Presbyterian Church, Toronto. In 1905, the congregation granted him a one-year leave of absence from his ministerial duties and the family moved to Edinburgh. This leave allowed Alexander some respite, but was also aimed at increasing the opportunities for Ernest to pursue his studies in music. By the end of the leave Alexander decided to resign from St. Enoch's and the family stayed in Scotland for another year. During this time, Alexander secured a position as temporary pastor at Cairns Memorial United Free Church in the west end of Edinburgh.

In February 1908 Alexander accepted a call to return to Mimico Presbyterian Church. He continued to serve as minister at Mimico until 1914, when he was appointed by the General Assembly of The Presbyterian Church in Canada to the position of Secretary of Church Praise, with the responsibility of lecturing on hymnology and Church music at the theological colleges and to speak and preach to congregations and church choirs on hymnody and church praise. Alexander had been first appointed to the Hymnal Committee of the Church in 1893, and was also a significant factor in the preparation of the 1897 Book of Praise. In 1912, he prepared the University Hymn Book of Toronto with Professor W.S. Milner. As Secretary of Church Praise, Alexander travelled frequently to speak on church music and hymnology and made numerous trips to the east and west coasts to lecture at the colleges. He served as Editor-in-Chief of the 1918 Book of Praise, and also gave editorial assistance in the preparation of a Book of Praise for the use of Ukrainian worshippers in both the Presbyterian and Methodist churches.

In 1925, he joined The United Church of Canada and continued his work in hymnology, overseeing the preparation of "The Hymnary of The United Church of Canada" in 1931, and producing the book "Hymns of the Church" in 1935. He retired from the church in 1933.

Alexander was both nationally and internationally recognized for his work, receiving an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from Presbyterian College in 1918, and an honorary Doctor of Music degree from the University of Toronto in 1943. He was also named Honorary Vice-President of the Hymn Society of Great Britain and Ireland in 1936 and was also an Honorary Member of the Hymn Society of America. Dr. MacMillan passed away on March 5th, 1961.

Introduction to the Papers

Physical Description and Extent:

1.17m of textual records, 19 photographs and 1 audio-cassette

Scope and Content Note:

This fonds consists primarily of family letters, most of which were written or received by Alexander MacMillan and date from 1889 through to 1958. Other records in the fonds include: various family photographs, legal and financial records, some biographical material on Alexander and his father-in-law, the Rev. Alexander Ross, and a few letters dating from the late 1700s and early 1800s which were written or received by the Rev. Alexander Urquhart (Winnie MacMillan's great-grandfather) and by the family of the Rev. James Campbell (Winnie MacMillan's grandfather). The records in the fonds, especially the letters, help document the life of the Rev. Alexander MacMillan from just before he was married until the final years of his life. Numerous letters were written between Alexander and his wife which shed light on the life of the family, but also on Alexander's work as a minister and as Secretary of Church Praise for The Presbyterian Church in Canada and later, The United Church of Canada. The letters also provide a brief glimpse into the early life and family background of their son, Sir Ernest MacMillan.

Custodial History:

These papers were maintained by Alexander MacMillan during his life and were kept in one or two suitcases at the home he shared with his daughter Jean at 46 Elgin Ave., Toronto. After his death in 1961, the material remained in the house largely untouched for the next 29 years. When Jean passed away, the material was assumed by Alexander's grandsons, Keith and Ross MacMillan. The material received by the Archives was donated in February 2001 by Keith's wife, Pat MacMillan, and by Ross MacMillan.

Terms Governing Use:

Some material in this fonds is protected by copyright (please ask the archivist on staff for clarification). A single copy of items in the fonds may be made for purposes of research and private study. Authorization must be obtained from the copyright holder if protected material is to be used for any other purpose. Protected material cannot be published without permission from the copyright holder.

Restrictions on Access:

There are no restrictions on access to this material.

Related Material:

The papers of Sir Ernest MacMillan may be found at the National Library of Canada in Ottawa.

Donors and Note of Appreciation:

The Presbyterian Church in Canada Archives would like to thank Mrs. Patricia MacMillan and Mr. Ross MacMillan for their kind and generous donation of these family papers to the Archives. Through this act of generosity, these papers are now available for consultation and research to both church members and the public, and will be maintained for the use of future generations of interested historians and researchers. The papers were donated to The Presbyterian Church in Canada Archives in February of 2001.

Series Descriptions and File Lists

Series 1: Letters of the MacMillan Family. - 1775-1958. - 68cm of textual records

This series of records makes up the majority of the material in the collection and consists of letters written or received by various members of the MacMillan family dating from 1775 to 1958, with a predominant number of letters being to or from The Rev. Alexander MacMillan. The series has been arranged into 7 sub-series, which are described in more detail below. The sub-series are: 1. Letters of Winnie MacMillan's ancestors; 2. Letters between Alexander MacMillan and Winnie MacMillan; 3. Letters of Alexander and/or Winnie MacMillan to and from their children (including a few letters between the children); 4. Post-1931 letters of Alexander to Jean and other family members; 5. Letters between Alexander and/or Winnie MacMillan and their parents; 6. Letters between Alexander and/or Winnie MacMillan and their siblings and families; and 7. Letters received by Alexander and/or Winnie MacMillan from friends and acquaintances.

Sub-series 1A – Letters of Winnie MacMillan's ancestors. – 1775-1847, [198?]. - 11cm of textual records.

Sub-series consists of 28 letters of Winnie MacMillan's grandparents and great-grandparents. The earliest date from 1775 and 1780 respectively, and were written to Winnie's great-grandmother, Wilhelmina Urquhart (nee Polson), who married the Rev. Alexander Urquhart of Rogart, Sutherland. The remaining letters are to or from the Rev. James Campbell, or his wife Johan Campbell (nee Urquhart), who were Winnie's grandparents on her mother's side. The letters, most of which are addressed to the Manse of Rogart, or to Kildonan (Helmsdale), discuss a variety of topics from family matters such as the schooling of the children to business issues and groceries purchased. One of the letters was sent from Canada in 1847 to James Campbell from his son George, in which he talks about the rapid development of the railways and his attempts to keep up with the Gaelic language. Many of the letters had little notes clipped to them helping identify the sender and receiver and were probably written by Jocelyn Rennie Podhalicz, Alexander's granddaughter, who used the material in this collection extensively in writing her manuscript on the life of Alexander (see Series 7 for the manuscript).

2001-5002-1-30	[198?]	List of most of the above-mentioned letters with some notes. The author is unknown, but is possibly Jocelyn Rennie Podhalicz.

Sub-series 1B – Letters between Alexander MacMillan and Winnie MacMillan. – 1889-1931. - 15cm of textual records.

Scope and Content:

Sub-series consists of correspondence between Alexander MacMillan and his wife Winifred ("Winnie") beginning in August 1889 - shortly after they first met - and continuing through their lives until just before Winnie's death in 1931. The letters tell a fairly detailed story of their family life together in Canada and for a short period of time in Scotland: their thoughts and concerns regarding the family and Alexander's work, and the raising of their children. Some of the letters provide a small window into the childhood and early years of their son, Sir Ernest MacMillan. Many letters were sent from Alexander to Winnie while he was on trips to preach, lecture and speak on Church Praise, hymnody and hymnology; often at Pine Hill Divinity School in Halifax, N.S. as well as on Western tours when he would sometimes meet with his step-brother Tom in Tacoma, Washington. Others include a few letters sent while he was in Britain overseeing the development and publication of both the 1897 and 1918 Book of Praise; letters sent from several General Assemblies detailing issues discussed and especially issues regarding the Committee on Church Praise; letters sent while the family was living in Scotland during Alexander's leave of absence from St. Enoch's Presbyterian Church; and also letters sent while Alexander was studying at New College in Edinburgh, prior to their marriage.

Sub-series 1D – Post-1931 letters of Alexander to Jean and other family members. – 1932-1955. - 19cm of textual records.

Scope and Content:

This sub-series consists of post-1931 letters (including some postcards) sent from Alexander to his children. The letters are predominantly to his daughter Jean, however a few are addressed to the whole family or to Ernest, Dorothy or Winifred individually. Following the death of Winnie in early 1932, and his retirement in 1933, Alexander regularly travelled to Edinburgh for a number of months each year until the early 1950s, and a large portion of this series of letters are from these trips. Also included are a number of letters sent from Ernescliffe Lodge on Lake Muskoka, where in 1941 Alexander was offered free room and board for the month of July in return for providing Sunday worship services. He returned to Ernescliffe several times in the years following.
