This finding aid is listed as FA-REVBP.

Historical Sketch

The Committee for the Revision of the Book of Praise was established by the General Assembly of 1964 as a sub-committee of the General Assembly's Committee on Church Worship. Its final report was made to the General Assembly in 1973 and the Committee was then dissolved, with continuing responsibility for the Revised Book of Praise (1972) being transferred to the Committee on Church Worship.

Archival Arrangement

This collection consists of approximately 1 metre of the minutes, correspondence, paste-ups of hymns and other records of the Committee on the Revision of the Book of Praise. The minutes and correspondence are arranged chronologically as far as possible. The paste-ups of the Book of Praise and similar records are arranged in page order as far as possible. The records are fairly complete. A further collection of the records of L.H. Fowler relating to the Committee are held by the Archives but are closed until the year 2010.
