Historical Sketch

The Hymnal Committee was established in 1876 with the intention of publishing hymn books for the Presbyterian Church in Canada, its Sabbath Schools and other organizations. The committee was initially referred to as the Hymn Book Committee but with the publication of an official Hymnal, the committee came to be known as the Hymnal Committee. In 1914 the name was officially changed to the Committee on Church Praise and the responsibilities were extended to include the advancement of praise throughout the church.
