

Kamloops, British Columbia St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church

Historical Sketch

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church was established in 1925 when those who were against Church Union decided to continue on with The Presbyterian Church in Canada. The first service following Union was held February 18, 1925 in the Masonic Hall. The congregation opened a newly built church in 1926 and had discharged the mortgage by 1930. The first minister after Church Union was the Rev. J. A. Kennedy. He served from 1927 to 1931. A new church building was built and was dedicated on November 2, 1958.

Killarney, Manitoba Erskine Presbyterian Church

Historical Sketch

Erskine Presbyterian Church, Killarney was organized in 1945 and the congregation was dissolved in 1992.

A Presbyterian mission had been established in 1884 in Killarney and was established as a congregation in 1888. In 1925 the congregation voted to join the United Church of Canada.

In 1944, the Rev. L.H. Henderson of First Presbyterian Church, Portage La Prairie conducted a service at Holiness Movement Church for Presbyterians in the area. This mission was organized as a congregation in 1944 with the ordination of Mr. D. Finleyson as an elder and election of managers. In June of 1946 more elders were elected and the first session meeting was held July of 1947.

Services were held in Holiness Movement Church until a church building was completed in 1949.

Throughout its history as a congregation, Erskine, Killarney operated as a mission, connected with a succession of other mission congregations and led variously, by ministers, catechists and students. In 1944, Erskine was linked with St. Andrew's, Boissevain, and Ninga Presbyterian Church, Ninga, an arrangement which continued until 1948. From 1948 to 1953 and again from 1957 to 1959, Erskine was linked with St. Paul's (later Knox), Bellefield and the Enterprise School congregation, Smith Hill, Man. From 1954 to 1956 Erskine and Bellefield were linked. In 1960, Erskine, Bellefield, Enterprise and the Henderson School were linked. From 1961 to 1964 Erskine, Bellefield and Enterprise were linked and finally, from 1965 until 1992, Erskine was linked to Bellefield and Ninga.

King City, Ontario

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church

Historical Sketch

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, King City (also described as St. Andrew's, East King and St. Andrew's, Strange ON) was established under the Presbyterian Church of Canada in connection with the Church of Scotland. The Rev. Gordon was inducted in 1834 as the first minister of St. Andrew's, King City, serving until 1837. At this time Rev. Gordon had a two-point charge of St. Andrew's King City and Newmarket. By 1875, St. Andrew's, King City was linked with Laskay (Ninth Concession, King) and Newmarket had become linked with Aurora. Congregations of this area were linked in various combinations through the years. For example in 1883, St. Andrew's, King City was linked with Aurora, while Laskay (Ninth Concession, King City) was linked with Eleventh Concession, King City, and similarly in 1923, St. Andrew's, King City was linked with Laskay and Eversley.

St. Andrew's, King City was built first of log construction, then was rebuilt in stone in 1860 or 1861. The congregations of St. Andrew's, King (Strange ON) and Eversley were united at King City on 14 Dec. 1958 and were raised to self-supporting status in 1961.

Note: There is mention of other King area churches in Historical Sketch [1984-4007-2-5], however, it is not clear of their connections with St. Andrew's, King City or their names/locations. For example, there were three churches served by the Rev. James Charmichael during his ministry (1869-1910): St. Andrew's, King City on the Sixth Line, a brick church on the Third Line, and a stone church on the Tenth Line. It is not clear when the Tenth Line church was established. The Third and Tenth Line churches were named St. John's and St. Besa, but it is unclear which name applies to which of these churches. In the Acts and Proceedings of 1905, St. Andrew's King City was linked with Tenth Line, King and "West King". Then West King is mentioned in the PCCA Finding Aid Congregational Records I-P stating that St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, West King moved to Nobleton ON in 1958 and St. Paul's, Nobleton was raised to self-supporting status in 1961.

Kingston, Ontario

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church

Historical Sketch

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church (Kingston, ON) was established in 1820 when the first church building was opened. The first minister to St. Andrew's was the Rev. Barclay. Rev. Barclay died at the age of 30 and was replaced by the Rev. Dr. Machar in 1827. The effect of the 1844 Disruption in Scotland was felt at St. Andrew's Kingston when three new churches were formed. Distinct groups split from St. Andrew's to form: a Free Church in connection with the Synod of the Presbyterian Church of Canada, and two churches in connection with the Presbytery of Ulster, Cooke's Church and Chalmers Church. The three churches united again in 1875 in The Presbyterian Church in Canada. The original church building was destroyed by fire in 1888 and was rebuilt in 1889. St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church (Kingston, ON) remained with The Presbyterian Church in Canada during the 1925 Church Union.

Note

This collection was forwarded to the Presbyterian Church Archives via the Board of World Mission in November 1983. See also Ontario Genealogical Society (O.G.S) transcript of Registers from 1821-18769 located in the Reference Collection of the Presbyterian Church Archives.

Kinlough, Ontario

Kinlough Presbyterian Church

Historical Sketch

Kinlough Presbyterian Church in Kinlough, Ontario was established at least by the early 1870s. It was also known as the North Kinloss church, distinguishing it from the congregation of South Kinloss in the southern part of the township. During its history the congregation has been linked with several other congregations in both two-point and three-point charges. From 1875 to 1882 Kinlough was part of a two-point charge with Bervie. From 1883 to 1909 it was linked to Riversdale and Enniskillen and in 1910, just with Riversdale. From 1911 to 1913 it was linked with Riversdale and Bervie, and from 1914 to 1925 once again with Riversdale only. At the time of Church Union in 1925, the congregation voted to remain Presbyterian. In 1926 Kinlough was linked with Kinloss (South Kinloss) an arrangement which continued until 1941. The two were linked again from 1950-1955. From 1942 to 1949 Kinlough, Kinloss and Bervie were linked, and since 1956, Kinlough has been linked with Knox, Teeswater.

Kintyre, Ontario Knox Presbyterian Church

Historical Sketch

Knox Presbyterian Church in Kintyre, Ontario (Township of Aldborough) was formed out of the congregation in New Glasgow in c.1856. A church building was constructed and opened in 1861. The two congregations of Kintyre and New Glasgow were joined together under one Session until 1874. Since 1961, Kintyre has been linked with Knox Church, New Glasgow and St. John's Church, Rodney as a three-point charge.

Kirk Hill, Ontario

St. Columba's Presbyterian Church

Historical Sketch

St. Columba's Presbyterian Church, Kirk Hill began as the Lochiel Church and was established in 1819 in connection with the Church of Scotland. The first minister was the Rev. John McLaurin who served from 1819 to 1832. The first church, built in the early 1820s was of frame construction. In 1846-47, a number of members from the Lochiel Church left to form the Lochiel "Free" Church. This Free Church congregation built a new stone church on the "West Hill" in Kirk Hill, which was opened and dedicated for worship in 1850. This congregation entered the United Church of Canada in 1925. In 1862, the name of the Lochiel Church (on the "East Hill") was changed to St. Columba's when a new stone church was built. A spire was completed in 1889 and the interior of the church was remodeled in 1927 where the seating capacity was reduced and choir room and Sunday School Room built. Up to 1911 the church had continued its connection to the Established Church of Scotland. In 1911, however, the congregation voted to join The Presbyterian Church in Canada. In 1925 the congregation voted (131 to 11) to remain within the Presbyterian Church. St. Columba's was linked with Kenyon Presbyterian Church, Dunvegan as a two-point charge in 1996 and this arrangement continues until the present (2003)

Kirkfield, Ontario

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church

Historical Sketch

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church (Kirkfield, Ont.) was organized in 1862. In the same year a church building was constructed. St. Andrew's was affiliated with the Canada Presbyterian Church up until the time of Union in 1875 when it joined The Presbyterian Church in Canada. In 1887, St. Andrew's united in a two point charge with the congregation at Bolsover. A second church was built in 1895, and a third in 1905. During the time of Church Union in 1925, St. Andrew's remained with The Presbyterian Church in Canada. On January 1, 1989, St. Andrew's, Eldon Station was amalgamated with St. Andrew's, Kirkfield. Eldon Station was established in the 1880's and was linked as a two-point charge with St. Andrew's Eldon (later called South Eldon) until 1935, when it was linked with St. Andrew's, Kirkfield.

Kirkwall Presbyterian Church

Historical Sketch

Kirkwall Presbyterian Church (Ont.) was established in 1833 by the Rev. Thomas Christie. The congregation met in a log cabin built to house the early settlers of the region. A log church was built in 1835. The Rev. James Roy was inducted following the departure of the Rev. Christie. A stone church was built on the same site in 1848. In 1912, Kirkwall united with Sheffield as a two point charge. This relationship lasted until 1925 when Sheffield chose to enter into Union and Kirkwall chose to remain with The Presbyterian Church in Canada. Following this separation, Kirkwall united for a time with West Flamboro.
